BREAKS A COLD IN A FEW HOURS

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the Surest, Quickest Relief Known—It's Fine!

Relief comes instantly.
A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold, either in the head, chest, body or limbs.
It promptly opens clogged nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty of New York University. The course will be conducted by Louis Weinberg. In connection with it, there will be exhibitions of contemporary works of art.

discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness. Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine. Don't accept something else "just as good." Insist on getting "Pape's Cold Compound" if you want to stop your cold quickly.—Advt.

FRESH INDICTMENT DUE FOR OSBORNE; PLEA IS DELAYED

Announcement of Plan to Suspend Present Charges Halts Proceedings in Court.

(Special to The Evening World.)
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Jan. 3.—There was a surprise in store for Thomas Mott Osborne, temporarily relieved as Warden of Sing Sing Prison, when he appeared before Justice Morchauser of the Supreme Court here this morning to plead to the indictments charging mismanagement and perjury, as his counsel, George Gordon Battle, was told by District Attorney Frederick E. Weeks, that a superceding indictment was about to be filed against Mr. Osborne.

This turn of affairs caused Mr. Battle to smile and he said that his client therefore could not plead to the indictments already found.
When Mr. Osborne, with his lawyers, Huntington W. Merchant and Mr. Battle, appeared before Justice Morchauser to enter a plea of not guilty the District Attorney was not in court. A court officer brought word that the county prosecutor did not intend to appear.
"We are here to plead," said Mr. Battle. "Mr. Osborne has come all the way from Auburn to do so. I also wish to make a motion for the minutes of the Grand Jury on which the indictments were found."
"I know of no way to force the District Attorney to appear," interposed Justice Morchauser. "He has a right to conduct his affairs as he sees fit."
Then Mr. Battle went to the District Attorney's office, and after consulting with Mr. Weeks he brought back this word to the court:
"The District Attorney intends to file a superceding indictment on or before the 11th of this month. We are ready to plead any time, but I suppose we can do nothing now."

The action of the District Attorney in forestalling the pleading of the former Sing Sing chief did not appear to disturb Mr. Osborne very much. He said to the reporters:
"I expect almost any kind of treatment these days. I fear nothing and I don't care how many indictments are found. I feel confident that I will prove that I am innocent of all the charges that are being made against me."
When Mr. Battle learned that he could do nothing to-day he said to the court: "Mr. Osborne is anxious for a speedy trial."

"Somebody is right here, or somebody is wrong," said Justice Morchauser. "Any one under indictment should desire a speedy trial. I think before granting the motion for the minutes you should make an affidavit, and then I will issue an order to the District Attorney to show cause why the minutes of the Grand Jury should not be filed."

It is understood that when the Grand Jury meets on Jan. 11 a superceding indictment will be voted upon to take the place of the one charging mismanagement on six counts. It is reported that the new indictment will be much stronger in tone.
Two Dead From Coal Gas.
Mrs. Mollie Strongus of No. 646 East Thirtieth Street, her six months' old son Max and Harry Schreiner, a boarder, are in Bellevue Hospital suffering from the effects of inhaling coal gas fumes. Mrs. Strongus's husband Reuben, twenty-seven years old, and her daughter Rose, five, are dead from the same experience. All five were found unconscious, by Philip Seller of No. 702 East Thirtieth Street, a friend. Strongus and the little girl died shortly afterward. Sewer gas was at first thought to have been responsible, but autopsies ordered by Coroner Riordan proved to the contrary.

Avoided Trolley; Hit by Auto.
A taxicab in passing a surface car at Seventh Avenue and Thirty-fourth Street early to-day struck John Lindsey, seventy-two years old, an elevator operator, living at No. 211 West Twenty-ninth Street, who was crossing the street. Lindsey was taken to New York Hospital suffering from internal injuries and a dislocated hip.
Fifty years old, of No. 128 East Eighty-eighth Street, the chauffeur, was arrested by Policeman Donovan, who saw the accident.

SEEK HERE FOR SLAYER OF 83-YEAR-OLD HERMIT

Massachusetts Police Trace Booty to Hartford—Think Murderer Hides in New York.

The search of the Massachusetts State Police for the murderer of Lafayette Battell, an aged recluse who was robbed and beaten to death in his cottage at Monterey, a suburb of Great Barrington, Mass., on Dec. 12, led them to-day to this city. The man they seek pawned a watch taken from Battell in a Hartford pawnshop and was then traced to the New Haven Railroad station, where he is believed to have boarded a New York train.

Battell was eighty-three years old. Neighbors who missed him about the streets went to his home on Dec. 15 and found his body. He had been tied in bed with sheets and his skull fractured with an iron bar. His gold watch and $10 pension money had been taken. A man who had worked on the estate of a New York lawyer near Battell's home was missed after the body was discovered and it is said that on the day before he had exhibited a gold watch and a roll of bills.

TIE-UP DELAYS THOUSANDS.

Stalled Train Halts Brooklynites on Way to Manhattan.
Traffic at the Chambers Street Terminal of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit lines, with the exception of the Fourth Avenue line, was tied up for over half an hour this morning and congestion resulted as far east as Cypress Hills and the Fulton Street line east of Manhattan Junction in Brooklyn.
A train became wedged in a switch at the Brooklyn approach to the Williamsburgh Bridge at 7:40.

As most of the traffic to the Chambers Street station is from the heavily populated section of Brooklyn along the Broadway elevated road, every station was jammed and thousands were late in reaching Manhattan.

Blouses of Quality and Style

At Popular Prices

DOMESTIC and imported models are included in the following smart Blouses. Many of them are fashioned of fine linen, though the heavier linen is also represented, as they both will be fashionable this season. Voile is maintaining its popularity with crepe de chine and the shadow laces.

4 Models in Voile and Organdie, 79c

One of these blouses (illustrated) has sailor collar and turn-back cuffs, edged with Valenciennes lace, with alternate insertions of lace in embroidery in the front. Three other models trimmed with embroidery and lace.

Shadow Lace Blouse, $1.89

Combination of cream shadow lace and black fish-net over cream chiffon. Vestee effect of embroidered chiffon.

Blazer Striped Linen Blouse, $3.49

Smartly tailored blouse (illustrated). High collar with deep points falling over wide ribbon tie drawn through flat tailored loops. Turn-back cuffs. Copenhagen, green, rose, lavender and navy stripes with white.

5 Models of Voile, $1.69

Voile blouse (illustrated) with fine tucks and lace inserts, bound buttonholes and octagonal pearl buttons.

Another model with organdie collars and cuffs, joined by entre deux. Panels of Venice lace, and collar edged with Venice lace.

Embroidered voile blouses with edging and inserts of lace. Straight cuffs and sailor collar.

White Linen Tailored Blouse, $2.69

Hand-embroidered cuffs, collar and patch pocket. Large pearl buttons. Black silk ribbon tie.

Crepe de Chine Blouse, $2.79

Macy's—Third Floor, 34th Street.

Fabrics

Everything good. Both American and Imported. Cheviots, Cassimeres, unfinished Worsteds, Vicunas, Donegals, Home-spuns, Bannockburns and fancy mixed Worsteds. Overcoats include London made "warmth without weight" fabrics, Vicunas, Meltons, Kerseys, Cheviots, double-faced Coatings, Montagnacs, Crombies, etc.

Styles

Smart, well groomed clothes of the English soft roll variety, elegantly simple and conservative models—business suits or suits for "special" wear. Overcoats galore. The most sought after models of the season—literally the cream of popular priced clothes productions. Button through overcoats, skirted, dressy styles; Ulsters, loose fitting coats; all in "New York Fashion."

Colors

Everything included but our blue and black suits. Greens, grays, tans, browns, and no end of fine combinations. Stripe effects, fancy mixtures—not a good thing omitted. No matter what your size or taste, the assortment is big and broad enough to delight every man who spends from $15 to $50 for clothes.

Tailoring

The big attraction is the fine attention to detail which characterizes every Macy suit and coat. Hand tailoring at tender spots where most suits are machine shaped. Silk lining in many suits and coats—rich linings in all of them. Hand-piped satin seams, hand-made button holes, hand-built interlining and "canvassing." Even the buttons are of a superior quality.

If you have never worn Macy clothes use this opportunity to prove their concrete economy to you. Shop around town—we urge comparison. Compare Macy clothes with clothes that figure "atmosphere" as a legitimate part of their price and discover at Macy's the same style, the fit, the workmanship and the worth that the best ready-to-wear clothes have—but at the commonplace clothes price.
